TUESDAY, APRIL 3, 1866.

MR. GEORGE LUNT, of Boston, recently published a book on "The Origin of the Late War," in which he endeavors to maintain the thesis that the rebellion was caused by the scruples of Northern men against slavery. Speaking of his probable appointment as Professor of Mental and Moral Philosophy in Washington College, the Richmond Enquirer says "he is to be constituted 'Professor of Mental Degeneracy and Moral Obliquity in Washington College.'" So much a man gets by unprincipled subserviency.

INFORMATION IS WANTED of GEORGE L. STEVENS, Company G, 77th Regiment, Pa. Vol., who was taken prisoner at Chickamauga, and sent to Andersonville prison, and is supposed to have died there. Any person having knowledge of his fate will communicate to the Senior editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette. Exchanges please copy.

Irresponsible Counterfeiters.

One of the most serious annoyances which the proprietors of an article in unusual demand have to encounter is the piratical imitation of it by parties equally unscrupulous and irresponsible. If an individual or a firm with means engages in this nefarious business, the damages awarded by a court of justice for the offense are collectable, and it is some satisfaction to the party wronged that the wrongdoer is made to suffer; but in most cases the pirates are men of straw, who cannot respond in dollars to the law's award.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters being a Standard Tonic, marketable everywhere, and representing the value affixed to it as accurately as a National Bank bill represents the amount expressed on its face, has been extensively counterfeited and simulated. The proprietors have spent many thousand dollars in hunting up and hunting down irresponsible individuals and firms who have given their minds to this dirty work. These parties—some of them, at least—have a way of changing their base, though they never change their business. When an injunction is laid upon them in one part of the country they sometimes "vamoose" to another, and try the trick again. In some cases it is necessary to kill them two or or three times over. Perhaps the best thing that can be done under these circumstances is to "lay an injunction" upon all who use the Sitters to buy only of dealers whom they can trust. In every city, town and village in the United States and British America this famous tonic, alterative and protective medicine may be procured of reliable men of business.

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Fourth street.

HARTFORD, CONN., April 2—2 P. M.—In this city English is up to the present time one hundred ahead.

NEW YORK, April 2—9 P. M.—Forty-eight towns in Connecticut have been heard from; they give Hawley, [Republican,] 7,076, and English, [Democrat,] 5,683. The above includes New London, Hartford and Norwich.

NEW YORK, 9:30 P. M.—New Haven gives a Democratic majority of 1,350.

HARTFORD, April 2—8:30 P. M.—Hawley, Republican, will have a majority of from 1,500 to 2,000, in New London county. All but two towns gave a Republican gain of over 200 over the vote for President in 1864. New London and Windham counties elect five Union senators, and gave about 2,300 majority for Hawley. Watt, Union, in the Eighth District has 519 majority. Appleman, Union, in the Seventh District, has 301 majority.

NEW HAVEN, April 2—9:10 P. M.—At this writing the Republicans have both branches of the Legislature, but the Governor is doubtful. Hawley is believed to be elected by a few hundred majority.

The Democratic senator in the Eighteenth District is elected by twenty majority. Col. Lucin W. Spracy, Democrat, is elected Mayor of New Haven.

BRIDGEPORT, CONN., April 2.—The following is the vote of this city: Hawley, 1,323; English, 1,325. There is a Union majority on the rest of the ticket. Nathan C. Wheeler, democrat, was elected Representative by ten majority. Union town and city officers are elected by an average majority of 30.

NEW YORK, April 2—Midnight.—Up to this hour returns have been received from seventy-nine towns and cities, which give English five hundred and thirty-three majority over Hawley. All the large cities in the State have been heard from, and it is claimed the remaining towns to be heard from will overcome the above majority by from one to two hundred.

HARTFORD, CT., April 3.—12:15 A. M.—Hawley's majority thus far is 655. Hawley will probably have from 900 to 1,000 majority.

VERY LATEST.

2:30 A. M.—Returns from all but ten towns give Hawley 700 majority. The ten towns to be heard from will probably increase his majority to 900.

The Senate stands fourteen Union to seven Democrats, and the House about fifty Union majority.

The Reform Bill.

HEAD CENTRE STEPHENS IN PARIS.

PREPARATIONS FOR WAR.

The Shenandoah Sold at Auction.

&c&c., &c&c., &c&c.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The new Inman steamer City of Paris, Captain Kennedy, which left Liverpool at noon of the 21st and Queenstown on the 22d ult., arrived here this morning.

Liverpool, Monday, March 21st.—In the House of Commons, Earl Grosvenor gave notice on the second reading of the Reform Bill, that he would move an amendment declaring it inexpedient to discuss the Bill until the House has before it the entire reform scheme contemplated by the Government. Sir W. Hyatt also gave notice that he would move an amendment to prevent the bill taking effect till a provision is made for the re-distribution of seats.

The Times says that Lord Stanley will second Grosvenor's amendment, and predicts an independent support for it, and hopes that it is not too late for the government to bring forward better plans.

The Morning Post believes that the amendment will prove a death blow to the Ministry.

The Daily News and Star regard the ignominious movement as nothing but opposition to reform, and says the Conservatives dare not move a direct negative to the measure.

A delegation of the 20th, to the Daily Telegraph, reports on good authority that Head Centre Stephens had just arrived in Paris, having been to Scotland.

The Orpheline Regilde, after rejecting another proposed amendment relative to the Press laws, finally adopted the entire address by 251 to 31.

The ex-rebel cruiser Shenandoah was sold at auction for £15,780.

Bourse firmer at 92f. 67c.

RIO JANEIRO, February 25.—A battle was fought on the 17th, in consequence of differences between the Argentine and Paraguayan armies. Heavy losses on both sides.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The extra Cunard steamer Tripoli left Liverpool on the 6th for this port. The following is a summary of her advices:

In the House of Commons the Irish Attorney General denied that the Lord Lieutenant had left Ireland, as apprehended by Fenian invasion.

In view of the latest advices from Jamaica, the Times is impelled to admit that frightful and unjustifiable cruelties were committed, and that there was an abuse of power totally beyond all excuse or palliation.

Several land owners have applied for permission to arm and drill their tenantry; but the government refused its consent, feeling perfectly able to afford civil protection.

The Paris Patrie denies that the French Government had consented to extend the period of the Extradition Treaty with England.

The German journals continued to represent the relations of Austria and Prussia as very threatening. They asserted that Austria had ordered the assembling of one hundred thousand troops on the Bohemian frontier, and that she had sent a circular note to the powers setting forth her responsibility for the consequences of any conflict which may arise.

The London Times directs attention to the critical state of affairs. It says: Bismarck has thrown off the mask, and the Duchies are to be annexed to Prussia.

Preparations for war are progressing on both sides. In both capitals military councils are held, generals nominated and plans of campaign discussed. The funds were depressed in the various European markets by the disquieting rumors.

The Spanish government had raised the state of the siege in New Castile. The Russian Ambassador had quitted Rome.

ARMY REORGANIZATION BILL.

Guarantee Mexican Loan.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The Tribune's Washington special says: The House Military Committee have instructed General Schenck to report to the House to-day the bill for the reorganization of the army. It does not change the number of the army from what Mr. Wilson's Senate bill provided for. It authorizes the veteran reserves to be consolidated and continued in ten regiments, and all officers hereafter appointed to that division are to be wounded volunteers. It omits the two regiments of colored cavalry, reduces the colored infantry regiments from ten to eight. It favors officers of the line and in the field, and does not, as the present laws do, favor officers on duty at Washington, either by promotion or increase of pay or perquisites. The pay of Brigadier Generals on duty at Washington is each, $5,435 75, and forage worth $684, or $6,289, 75 per annum in money. The same General goes into the field, and gets $1,485 22 less. A bill is now before the Military Committee asking increased pay for General's Meigs, Dyer and Townsend, of $1,214 per year each, making their $7,483 75. It will be reported upon adversely.

Both Congress and the President are very determined and positive in their opposition to the Guarantee Mexican loan. While there is no disposition to bring on any serious complications with Napoleon, there is a determination to do something that will show to him that the people of this country will submit to any double dealing or doubtful course on his part. For this reason the vote will be very decided in the House. The action of the Senate will be upon Sunday evening, and after the House has given him a decided hint by the passage of the measure in that body.

The Herald's Washington special says: It is now admitted that the guarantee Mexican loan will pass the House of Representatives. The opponents of the measure concede that much. It is understood that a number of the members who voted for the purpose of giving Napoleon to understand that this country is in earnest in regard to its endorsement of the Republic of Mexico. Their votes will, in some instances, be given for that measure in the hope that with its passage in the House Napoleon will take the hint and withdraw from that country. It is understood that after this passage in the lower House it will be taken in the Senate to see whether the French Emperor will take the hint without further action by Congress.

Miss Davis is understood to be en route to Washington, in hopes of obtaining permission to visit her husband in the prison at Fortress Monroe. She will probably arrive in company with A. H. Stephens, within a day or two.

PEACE PROCLAIMED!

Proclamation by the President.

WASHINGTON, April 2, 1866.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, By proclamations on the 15th and 19th of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, the President of the United States, in virtue of the power vested in him by the Constitution and laws, declared that the laws of the United States were opposed and the execution thereof obstructed in the States of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, by combinations too powerful to be suppressed by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, or by the powers vested in the Marshals by law; and,

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARRISBURG, April 2, 1866.

The Senate is not in session to-day.

HOUSE.

BILLS IN PLACE.

Speaker Kelly presented an act to incorporate the West Middletown and Railroad Turnpike Company, which passed.

Mr. McKee an act to extend the time to keep open the polls in South Pittsburgh, at borough elections.

Mr. Glass, an act to incorporate the Incombustible Building Association.

Mr. Sturdevant, an act to allow the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad Company, to build a branch road.

Adjourned.

The Civil Rights' Bill—The Proposed Negro Celebration.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Senator Trumbull does not expect to speak on the veto of the Civil Rights bill before Thursday. The object is to take a vote upon it after the speech, and the Committee which escorted the remains of the late Senator Foote to Vermont are not expected back from there before Thursday. There will be no vote until they return.

To-day's National Republican says: There is a report that the Government here has interfered with the proposed celebration by the colored people of Richmond on the anniversary of the fall of that city on the third instant. We have the best authority for saying that neither the President nor the General Government has interfered in the matter in any way. The subject is entirely within the control of General Terry, who is a man of safe judgment, and being on the ground knows best what to do in the premises. He is authorized to act prudently in the event of any unnecessary or illegal disturbances of the peace on either side.

New Jersey Legislature.

TRENTON, N. J. April 2.—The members of the Legislature have not yet arrived. Mr. Scovil arrived here last night.

The town is filling up fast with visitors.

The senatorial question is the topic of interest. Mr. Cattell and his friends will not secede. Mr. Scovil has intimated a list of candidates acceptable to him, not including himself.

No action has been taken to-day, but a movement will probably be made to-morrow.

XXVIIth CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, April 2, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Wilson, from the Military Committee, reported the bill to equalize bounties, in a new form, when it was recommitted to the Military Committee. It gives to every soldier in the late war eight and one-third dollars per month, minus the amounts already paid. Some guards or troops called out for local service are excepted from the benefits of the act. No money will be paid out, under the act, to any claim agent or attorney.

The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from the President of the United States, transmitting a communication from the Governor of the State of Alabama, asking for an extension of time for the completion of certain railroads in that State, which was referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. Wilson, from the same Committee, reported favorably, a bill to provide arms and ammunition for the defence of the inhabitants of Dakotah Territory.

Mr. Sumner offered a resolution calling upon the Postmaster-General and the Secretary of the Treasury to report to the Senate whether, since December last, any persons have been permitted to enter on the duties of their Departments and receive salaries, without taking the oath required by law.

Mr. McDougal objected, and the resolution went over.

Mr. Fessenden, from the Finance Committee, reported the Loan Bill without amendment.

HOUSE.

The business first in order being a call for States, and bills and joint resolutions, Mr. Washburn introduced a bill to provide for continuing in service the acting medical officers of the navy, and to supply vacancies in the regular list, which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

Mr. Kasson introduced a Joint resolution allowing a limited time for perfecting papers requiring stamps to be affixed thereto, which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Shellabarger introduced a bill to declare and protect all the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States, in the several States, which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Denny, of Washington Territory, introduced a bill in relation to the Courts of Washington Territory, which was read twice and referred to the Judiciary Committee. Also, a bill to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line, from Puget's Sound, in Washington Territory, to the Columbia river, which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Pacific railroad.

Mr. Hays, of Ohio, introduced a bill to provide for the muster out of the Ninth regiment of volunteer militia, during the time of its service in the United States, during the year 1862, which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. Bidwell, of California, introduced a bill to confirm the selection and location of certain lands granted to the State of California by the United States, which was referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. Niblack, introduced a bill conferring the franking privilege on express of the United States, which was read twice and referred to the Post Office Committee.

The resolutions introduced by Mr. Rogers, of New Jersey, this day forthight, and debated last Monday, in relation to the United States securities, &c., came up as the next business in order.

Mr. Price moved their reference to the Committee of Ways and Means.

Mr. Rogers modified the last resolution of the series by adding the words "that all government securities heretofore issued shall bear their fair share of taxation."

The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The next business being the call of the States for resolutions, Mr. Ward, of New York, offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The House on a previous occasion instructed the Committee on Military Affairs to report a bill equalizing the bounties of soldiers and sailors; and

WHEREAS, Immediate action by Congress is demanded by many of these soldiers and sailors, and the widows and orphans of those who have perished in the field, in the hospitals and rebel prison pens; and

WHEREAS, This session of Congress is far spent and no definite action has yet been had on the subject; therefore,

Resolved, That the Committee on Military Affairs have liberty to report by bill or otherwise, upon the subject at any time.

Mr. Schenck moved that the Committee on Military Affairs, asserted the sanity of that Committee to dispose properly of this matter, but stated that it was easier for outsiders to manufacture than for committees. For a committee to perfect a measure which would provide liberally for the soldiers, and at the same time take care of the interest of the country. The matter before the House was that this committee which was prepared to report upon it, but Mr. Blaine, who had especially had it in charge, was absent on account of the death of a near connection in Boston, and the Committee would prefer to wait until his return before any bill was reported.

The resolution was adopted.

The following resolution offered by Mr. Pike, March 19th, which then went over under the rule, came up next in order: Whereas the Governors of several of the States of the Union have publicly warned our fishing fleets off the fishing grounds adjacent to their coasts, and have thus indicated a design to renew the unfriendliness made by them, prior to the Reciprocity treaty, and to promote peaceable commerce; therefore,

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Navy be requested to forthwith have a naval force to the fishing grounds to protect our citizens in the enjoyment of their rights as recognized by the treaty of 1783.

Mr. Bailey suggested that there was some question as to whether the rights referred to were recognized under the treaty of 1783, or under subsequent treaties.

Mr. Pike modified his resolution, so as to read "under and by virtue of the treaty of 1783, or under subsequent treaties."

On motion of Mr. Raymond, the resolution was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, with leave to report at any time.

Mr. Raymond offered the following:

Resolved, By the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, that a committee of five persons be appointed by the President of the United States, to consider and report to Congress at its next session on the necessity of some more speedy and cheap mode of transportation between the Western States and the Atlantic seaboard, and submit some plan either by law or treaty whereby the National Government can be compelled to for such necessity, if it shall be found to exist, provided, that said Commission shall receive no compensation for their services, and no expenses of any kind, except for such traveling expenses as they may actually incur in discharging the duties imposed upon them by this resolution.

The resolution went over to a future day.

The resolutions of Mr. Davies, of New York, offered on the 10th of January last, and which then went over under the rule, came up as the next business in order. The resolution declares that this House cherishes the most entire confidence in the patriotism and loyalty of the President of the United States, and in his desire to restore the Union on the basis of permanent prosperity and peace, and that this House is pledged to support the policy inaugurated by him on the mode authorized by the Constitution and consistent with the security of Republican institutions.

Mr. Davis indicated how much time was left before the expiration of the morning hour.

Schenck suggested in an undertone that he might have ten minutes, but that he set forth. He replied that the morning hour would expire in ten minutes, but that the debate might continue, unless some member would rise to go to the business on the Speaker's table.

Mr. Spalding gave notice that he would make that motion.

Mr. Davis yielded the floor to Mr. Raymond who expressed his supposition that the resolution would not, under existing circumstances, pass the House by a unanimous vote without all the members expressing their judgment, and points instead of on prejudice and preconcerted opinion. He did not know that the House was prepared to enter on the discussion to-day. He, for himself, hoped that the discussion would not be entered upon now. He had no intention to enter upon it himself, unless forced to do so, in order to get power to a snap judgment on the subject. All that he desired was to have an understanding on the part of the House that the resolution should not be put upon now, and that whenever called up, such gentlemen as might desire to speak upon it should have the opportunity to do so.

Mr. Paine, of Wisconsin, stated that if that understanding went so far as to exclude a motion to lay the resolution on the table, he would not agree to it.

Mr. Raymond replied that he certainly should have it laid on the table the moment it was called up. He desired to say something in reference to it and in reference to his own relations to the resolution, he said, purposes to declare the confidence of the House in the integrity and patriotism of the President of the United States, and in the wisdom of the policy with which he proposed to restore the Union to peace and order. Under ordinary circumstances this resolution would be simply a matter of course. This House contains a very large majority of Union men.

Here the Speaker announced the expiration of the morning hour, and that it was the duty of the Chair to call up the special order for the day—the Army bill.

Mr. Schenck, in consequence of the absence of his colleague on the Committee, (Mr. Blaine), moved that the Army bill be postponed until the 10th of April, and that in the meantime the bill with the amendments reported by the Committee, be printed with extra copies for the use of members.

Mr. Laflin, from the Committee on Printing, reported back the memorial of J. G. Kennedy, dated December 12th, 1865, with a request that the Committee be discharged from its further consideration. He explained at length the disagreement between the Secretary of the Interior and the Consul's Superintendent, which gave rise to the action that was agreed to.

Mr. Grinnell offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Printing to report what reforms, if any, are needed in the printing of papers, and especially in the publication of the books, documents, bills, and other matters printed at the public expense in the management of the public printing office, the collection and sale of waste paper, &c., with power to send for persons and papers.

Mr. Laflin inquired whether there was any intention to reduce by this resolution or otherwise the number of the employees of printing offices, or with the purchase or sale of paper.

Mr. Grinnell disclaimed anything of the kind, but thought the inquiries should be made.

Mr. Laflin remarked, that considering the duties and responsibilities of the Superintendent of public printing, involving an annual, expenditure of over two millions of dollars, the government was guilty of a most niggardly action in paying him such a small salary.

Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, opposed the resolution, and hoped the inquiry would be conducted, not with a view to whitewashing, because the people thought there was something wrong in the management of the public printing offices.

The resolution was adopted.

The next business in order was the resolution offered by Mr. McCulloch, on the 18th of March, which then went over under the rules, that the Secretary of War be requested to furnish the House with a list of the officers, volunteers and regulars, employed in the Quartermaster-General's Department in this city; also their rank, the particular duties performed by them, and the number of clerks serving in each bureau under them. Also, by what law the Secretary of War holds the Corcoran Art building

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

Congress, in the course of the present week, will doubtless decide the fate of this bill. The impression has been general that in the Senate the result was doubtful; but the latest accounts represent that the requisite majority of two-thirds is pretty sure to be had. In the House of Representatives no trouble exists.

Among loyal people in all parts of the country, a strong feeling prevails in favor of the bill. Multitudes who sustained the Veto of the Freedmen's Bureau Bill, insist upon the passage or this bill over the veto. This proceeds principally from a consideration of what is actually intended to be accomplished by the enactment of the law. In part, also, it proceeds from a recognition of what the bill carefully avoids meddling with.

The bill does not confer any rights upon the blacks. It does not make them voters. It does not seek, ever so remotely, to endow them with social equality, either among themselves or with their white neighbors. It is not eleemosynary. Charity does not come within its purview. It neither distributes alms, nor found hospitals, nor builds schools, nor maintains churches.

Its sole end is to render the blacks secure in their persons and property; to protect them in the fair and full enjoyment of the rights conferred on them by the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery. It simply aims to fulfill the pledge of the Nation that emancipation should be complete and permanent. In all other particulars it throws the blacks entirely upon their own resources, leaving them to work out their own destiny as best they may. Nothing is accorded to them but what is freely conceded alike to blacks and whites by the regular operation of the laws in the most intensely aristocratic nations of Europe.

The provisions of the bill do not discriminate between States. They apply as absolutely in Pennsylvania as in Virginia. Nor do they interfere with State laws except where those laws are made to interfere with the spirit and intent of the Federal Constitution. If a State provides for the fair administration of justice to the blacks this bill, if it shall become a law, will almost of necessity be of no effect within its borders. If a State will persist in having one measure of justice for white people and a very different one for the blacks, doubtless this bill would be felt intrusive and grievous. But this does not militate against the right and obligation of the general government to secure perfect equality before the laws for high and low, rich and poor, black and white.

But, it urged that the machinery of the bill is unusual and in derogation of the reserved rights of the States. We admit the methods of the bill are not those ordinarily in operation. The methods are those of the Fugitive Slave Law. What was ordained for wrong, has, in the orderings of Providence, become helpful of right. The case itself is not a common one. Four millions of people are in an anomalous condition, and the methods for their protection, in order to be adapted to that condition, necessarily partake of its exceptional character. But these methods are not in contravention of the reserved rights of the States. The National Constitution, as it now stands, gives Congress the most ample authority over the whole subject; and it is the duty of each to bring its local laws and usages at once into harmony with the new powers conferred on Congress. So long as the blacks remain peculiarly circumstanced; so long as special and invidious obstacles are thrown across their pursuit of justice; uncommon remedies ought to be placed within their reach. This is in exact consistency with the fundamental maxim of the Common Law that every wrong shall have a remedy. When ordinary means of redress are nugatory or inadequate, extraordinary means become not only tolerable but of indispensable necessity.

But the blacks have a claim beyond this, upon the loyal people of the nation. It is not simply their mute and patient endurance of wrong for a century and a half, that commends them to sympathy. When this nation was in its great agony, not a rebel was found among them. With unsurpassed devotion they stood by the Government. Faith never was presented in a fairer attitude. Whatever they could do for the national cause, they did with unquestioning fidelity and noble heroism. Hence, they are exposed to the vindictiveness of Southern rebels and the contempt of northern democrats. Their emancipation is an offense to both these powerful classes, partly because they hate universal liberty, and partly because this special deliverance came as auxiliary to the maintenance of the Union.

There ought to be no defection, when the vote shall come, upon the part of Republican members of Congress. The Republican member who falters now, will show a depth of debasement for which condonement is impossible.

SUNDAY CARS.—All winter a fierce controversy has been going on in Philadelphia relative to the running of street cars on Sunday. The debate was carried up to Harrisburg by the introduction of a bill into the Houses to repeal so much of existing laws as forbid the running of the cars on that day. Remonstrances were made against the passage of the bill. Finally a proposition was offered to submit the decision of the question to a vote of the people; but this failed. At this point the Postmaster General has interposed, and declared the Union City Passenger Railway of Philadelphia a post-road. This is held to settle the matter, and obviate the necessity of legislation.

THE gentiles have established a newspaper at Salt Lake City, that fairly beards BRIGHAM YOUNG in his den on the question of polygamy. No wonder the Elder talks of emigrating to some island of the South Seas. The waves of population, rolling across the continent, have broken the isolation in which Mormonism reposed for security. It must retreat or perish. Whither shall it go?

CONSERVATISM.—In the U. S. Senate, during the first Session of thirty-sixth Congress, ANDREW JOHNSON gave the following definition:

"Conservatism! It is the argument of tyrants and despots, one that entails an existing institution in its present form, whether it be right or wrong."

Just now we are in a dilemma. We have lost our identity. We do not know whether we are ourselves or other people. The cause of our perplexity is this: The Scranton Register, challenged by the Bradford Reporter to name a Republican journal in Pennsylvania that sustains the President's Policy as expounded in his Veto Messages, designates the Pittsburgh Gazette. It speaks, with a glow of animation of the manner in which we have "given SUMNER, STEVENS & Co. particular jesse." It tells how "much it has admired the pluck of the Gazette for some months past—it has been so outspoken against the folly and wickedness of that fanatical crew," and more to the same effect. Are we there, or are we somewhere else? Are we ourselves, or are we other individuals? These are the questions that bother us.

"SINCE President Johnson's second veto, the Republican party are beginning to realize that no communion is possible on leading questions between him and them. They have come slowly and reluctantly to this conviction, for it is a bitter mortification to find that a President whom they elected repudiates their views."—New York World.

This justly describes the situation. There is no longer any communion or sympathy between the republican party and the President. And this, not because that party has chosen to quarrel with the President, but because the President has seen fit to "repudiate the views of the party by which he was elected." The word may at least be taken as an umpire whose learning is not hostile to the President.

THE RESPONSIBLE editor of the New York Times, in his place in Congress, made a speech strongly approving of the objects of the Civil Rights Bill, though mildly dissenting from some of its machinery. When a motion was made to lay the bill on the table, which would have ensured its defeat, he voted against the proposition, which was clearly a vote in favor of the bill. When the final vote came he found it convenient to be absent. When the veto message came, he held its reasonings to be conclusive.

THE VETO of the Civil Rights Bill imparted to many republicans juster ideas than they had before of the irrepressible nature of the conflict between the President and Congress. They now see that the difference does not relate so much to methods and instrumentalities as to the ends to be reached. There is no possible reconcilement between the ideas now held by the President and the bulk of the republican party.

Emancipation Completed in Russia.

A St. Petersburg letter says that an imperial ukase, just issued, completes the work of emancipation decreed five years ago by the regulation of February 19, 1861, and applies it to all the peasants of the State domains. That class, personally emancipated in 1861, had remained provisionally under the administration of the crown, but the Government has entered resolutely on the task of throwing many of its works into the hands of private persons. Seven factories and forges have already been given up. The numerous abuses committed in the local management, which could not have been prevented by any precaution, had diminished, but still existed. Official documents show the inconveniences of the old system. In the villages there were always two public houses for one church. The administration had created several schools of practical agriculture, which scarcely, on an average, counted more than two scholars each. The new ukase prescribes to the Ministers of the Interior and of the Domains the task of agreeing together for putting all the prescriptions into execution in the course of six months. On the 19th of August next there will be in Russia but one and the same class of peasant proprietors organized in communes.

A WEEK ago the Cincinnati papers contained highly colored accounts of an outrage on a white woman by a negro, in that city, the woman being a young widow who, it was claimed, was belated at the railroad depot and outraged while endeavoring to reach a hotel. The case has been tried before a Cincinnati court and the negro discharged on the ground of his having proved an alibi. In disposing of the case, the Judge said: "If the outrage was committed, the act was not committed by the defendant. The proof is conclusive that he was not at the I. & C. Railroad Depot on the night stated, and the testimony of the plaintiff is, therefore, not to be relied upon. There is no faith to be placed in the statement of the woman, and there is not a shadow of suspicion against the prisoner."

THE CATTLE PLAGUE AND ITS CURE.—The United States Consul at Liverpool writes to the State Department that two remedies now in use are said to be very effective in curing the cattle disease. One of the remedies is thus made:

One ounce of Peruvian bark, 1 ounce of gentian, 1 ounce of ground ginger, 2 drachms of sulphrate of iron, 4 tablespoonfuls of treakle, and one glass of brandy or whisky. Dose once a day. The other prescription is thus compounded: One pound of onions, small and strong; 1 pound of garlic, 1 pound of ground ginger, ½ pound of assafœtida, to be covered with water and stirred on the fire till in a milky pulp, then put over the other articles; add of rice water 2 pints for every two of the mixture. Dose for a cow, one pint a day.

A NORTH CAROLINA paper confesses that many of the internal revenue laws, particularly those relating to excise duties, are openly and almost universally evaded in that State. Several well informed witnesses have also testified before the Committee on Reconstruction, that there is a very general disposition in the south to obstruct the collection of taxes, and if possible to avoid making contributions to the payment of the national debt. It would suit the rebels much better, no doubt, to have representation without taxation, than taxation without representation, now since their treason has entailed heavy burdens upon our country—but something is due to the convenience and interests of the loyal millions whose unflagging energies bore the national banner in triumph through a long and bloody war.

THE missionaries of the Presbyterian and Dutch Reformed Churches have been in Japan ever since the country was opened for the admission of foreigners. But they have been chiefly occupied in acquiring the language and translating the Scriptures, and other preparatory labors. Mrs. Hepburn, the wife of one of them, writes, however, that they have had the satisfaction of baptizing one convert. He is an old man, formerly a physician, but for several years in the employ of the mission.

A RECENT Washington letter says: "A speculator, well known in this city as having made large purchases of arms, munitions, &c., sold, among other articles, to the Fenian leader, General Sweeny, a week ago Wednesday, twenty thousand army revolvers and seventeen thousand forage caps. It is known that a very large proportion of the military material sold by the War Department since the rebellion closed has been purchased by one or the other of the Fenian executives."

THE citizens of San Francisco are startled by a project to construct a new water front to their city, the proposition being to make an appropriation of five or six thousand acres of water to be built up and filled up and filled in by the operators. The Alta says if this is done many present owners of valuable water fronts will find their lots far inland, causing a loss of millions of dollars to the best business portion of the city.

A NUMBER of drafts, drawn during the war, on Frazier, Trenholm & Co., of Liverpool, by Geo. A. Trenholm, rebel Secretary of the Treasury, and which were captured by our forces while in transit to Europe, and by our Government presented for payment, have been returned to the Treasury protested. The cause assigned for this nonpayment is that the Confederate fund is exhausted.

THE division of Texas into two States is agitating that State. If divided it will be a line running North and South, making an East and West Texas.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE donation of $100,000 recently made to La Fayette College, Easton, Pa., by A. Pardee, one of the successful coal operators of the Lehigh region, is another evidence of creditable and judicious liberality, which is honorable to the donor, and will, we hope, with the other late contributions to that institution, advance to it a front rank among the colleges of the country.

PHILIP BURROUGHS, who absconded to Europe from New York, some twenty years ago, with $500,000 trust money, died recently in Italy. He was attorney for the Renssalaers, in New York, and sold a part of their property, for them, to A. T. Stewart, for $500,000, and bolted to Europe with the money, where he has been living, unmolested, ever since.

THE Independent says that the story that the Cabinet is a unit in support of the President's policy is a fiction. The President himself is not a unit; he is part Hawley and part English; one thing to one visitor, and another to another. But as soon as the President shall be all one way, he will probably want a Cabinet all one way.

TOBACCO CULTURE IN VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA.—From all quarters of the tobacco region of Virginia and North Carolina there are assurances that great efforts will be made to plant a crop of tobacco. The want of agricultural labor will be exhibited less in the production of tobacco than in any other agricultural product.

A NEW member of the English House of Commons, who had the habit of speaking very slowly, recently undertook to debate the cattle plague bill, and astonished the House by saying, "I've had the rinderpest"—after the burst of laughter which followed, the member was permitted to continue, and added—"on my farm."

TO THE assertion of a Washington dispatch that the President is quite merry at times over the flurry caused by his 22d of February speech, the Sandusky Register replies: "This is a conservative and highly reprehensible method of calling our Chief Magistrate a merry Andrew.

THOMAS MIMS, who murdered James Walters in Cincinnati in 1862, and was convicted in 1863, but who succeeded in tying his case up by an appeal to the Supreme Court, has at last had his case decided, and is sentenced to be hung on the 25th of May next.

IT is stated on good authority that a Philadelphian, who, a few years ago, had a revenue of $20,000 per annum, and cut a large splurge among the bon ton of the city, is now an attendant in an eating saloon in New York, on a salary of a few dollars per week.

THE census of Boston has just been completed, and it shows that while from 1850 to 1855 the city increased 22,641, the gain from 1855 to 1860 was only 16,473. The present entire population is 192,264.

VARIOUS ITEMS.

EDUCATION OF THE BLACK RACE.—A writer in a Mississippi journal—the Jackson Mississippian— estimates that there are a million of negroes in the Southern States to be educated, of whom three hundred thousand are ready to be received as pupils in the schools. The temper of the article is spiteful against the Yankees—the employment of women as teachers the writer deprecates—but he fully admits the capacity of the negro for improvement and his desire for the acquisition of knowledge. On this head he remarks:

"Where could he (the teacher) find a more docile, and quiet, obedient set of little fellows than among the children who have been all their lives obeyed, and would instinctively require it of their offspring? The law and the wish of the parent would allow of such discipline as would keep good order in school and enable her to keep the little fellows nicely and decently clad. I am satisfied from observation and repeated conversations with them on the subject, that next to their freedom is the desire to improve their minds. I do not say it is so with all of them, nor is it the case with all white persons, but I am satisfied it is so with the better hearted and better minded of the black population, such as will give more pleasure and less trouble in their management to their employer."

ONE CAUSE OF SINGULAR FIRES.—It is a general truth that friction developes electricity, and most workmen know that a pasteboard belt at high speed by its friction with the air is highly electrified. It has for years been a common experiment for a workman to light gas burners by holding one hand to a fast-going belt and the other to the open burner. This matter was curiously demonstrated in the Appleton Mills of this city on Wednesday. A strong smell of fire being noticed, the premises were carefully searched, and a small quantity of cotton lint inside a belt-casing was found on fire. The lint lay upon a beam which was within four inches of a belt some fifteen feet wide, and moving some two hundred and twenty revolutions a minute. In the beam was an iron bolt, the head of which was toward the belt. From the belt to the bolt was passing a stream of electric sparks which had set the cotton lint on fire. After attending to this case, Mr. Motley, the agent, opened the casing of a similar bolt in another mill. The beam in this case was fourteen inches from the belt, but the stream of electric sparks was at once seen jumping across the beam, although it had not set fire to anything. Perhaps some of the cases of fire from supposed "spontaneous combustion" are due to electricity from machinery. The subject is an interesting one for investigation, and doubtless a profitable one.—Lowell (Mass.) Courier, March 23.

"WITHOUT A P."—Binghamton, N. Y., wishes to be spelled without a p. One of her pleasant people says:

Many years since, while the worthy but eccentric Dr. Robinson (father of Major General John C. Robinson) officiated as village postmaster here, the Postmaster at Buffalo fell into the too common error of addressing packages intended for this office to Binghampton, instead of Binghamton. The worthy Doctor was much annoyed by this and accordingly he addressed a note to the Buffalo Postmaster, asking him "to keep the p out of Binghamton." This, however, failed to have the desired effect, as packages continued to appear with the misspelled address thereon. At length, out of all patience with the stupidity of Postmasters in general, and the one at Buffalo in particular, the Doctor addressed a package to him as follows:

"J——M——, Postmaster,
"BUFFALO, N. Y."

Adding: "There! how do you like a p in Buffalo?"

This had the desired effect, so far as the Buffalo Postmaster was concerned; and if this article proves as salutary upon your readers it will not have been written in vain.

A GOOD HOAX.—The National Intelligencer contains a letter of President JOHNSON endorsing and praising the written refusal of a clerk in the paymaster general's office to pay his share of the expenses of the New Hampshire election. The clerk's letter is in reply to what purports to be a printed circular, franked by Mr. ROLLINS, member of the House from New Hampshire.

It turns out that no such circular has been issued by the New Hampshire clerks at this election, and the one sent to the clerk was an old circular issued in 1864 to collect funds to help to elect Andrew Johnson Vice President on the ticket with Abraham Lincoln. So the President, in his haste to aprove the sagacious refusal of a subordinate to help to elect a Union ticket in New Hampshire, rebukes the men who actually worked and voted and got in debt for himself. It is about the best joke since the great hoax exposed in the speech of Thaddeus Stevens.

THE UNION MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.—Mr. Baldwin, a member of Congress from Massachusetts, writes from Washington to the Worcester Spy:

"In the reports of proceedings in Congress you will notice a free discussion of their minor differences of opinion among the Union members. Do not allow yourselves to infer from this that there are any grave differences of opinion or purpose among them. There is a general desire to put every measure adopted in the best form; but there are no substantial differences among the great mass of the Union members; and you may assure yourselves that the great mass of them will be true to their constituents and mindful of the momentous interests at stake."

Memphis is thoughly reconstructed, and ready, in the President's opinion, to be represented in Congress. Yet the National airs cannot be performed at the theater without provoking a storm of hisses and other violent signs of disapprobation.

FORTY-THREE newspapers in Missouri oppose the President's restoration policy, and only twenty-eight support it. Missouri has her eye-teeth cut. She has seen too much of the rebellion to be humbugged.

IT has just been decided, at Buffalo, that a conductor is not bound to make change for a passenger. The latter must be supplied, present the exact sum fixed as the price of a ticket.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ AYER'S PILLS—Are you Sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order with your system deranger and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the precursors of serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take and expel the cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and derange its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in this condition, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint is also true in many of the deep seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangement of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely cured by the same means. None who know the virtue of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as Indigestion, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness, Constipation, Heartburn, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Worms and Suppression, when taken in large doses.

They are Sugar Coated, so t at the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are surely the best purgative medicine yet discovered.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For the speedy cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in that fruitful derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and in these, even at the worst stage of the disease, it will be found a perfect antidote to the poison which causes the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or mineral deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will understand these assertions.

This Retrouvey's Turkish Bandolenian Hair Tonic will do, and for proof we refer you to any person who has tried it. FINANCE AND TRADE.

MONDAY, April 2, 1866.

There is still a very uncertain feeling in mercantile quarters as to the future course of prices, and trade shows no improvement in any department. There is but little hope that prices will again take an upward move, and the decline is generally accepted as an inevitable thing—a result of the changed and improved condition of the country. Had goods, now in store been sold at the expected prices and distributed by the usual process among consumers, other stocks would have been accumulated, and eventually the same decline would have commenced, leading on all the consequences now witnessed, and expected. As inevitable, it must be submitted to by dealers with as much gracefulness as they can command, and with prudence it may be rendered so gradual that no embarrassments or losses shall ensue. And if, (says the Philadelphia Press,) that prudence extended up to the importers, limiting their operations with foreign manufacturers, the inconvenience and danger now existing may be brought to an end, and a wholesome activity of trade at prices fair to all parties may be restored. But it is too much to calculate on the universal prevalence of such precedent limitations in trade with foreign countries, while the interests of foreign dealers are furthered by filling our extensive country with their merchandise. The interposition, therefore, of wise legislative check is generally urged as necessary. This is the point where legislation can effectually guard against the overstocking of our markets with foreign goods, and secure our traders and our people from those sudden and extreme changes of price which occur too occasionally, while the supply comes partly from paid and partly from half-paid labor, in a close competition with each other.

—The New York Tribune, of March 31, says:

"The continued ease in money is turning fresh attention to Government, as affording the highest rate of interest, united to superior security and readiness of reconversion to money again. European exchange is now so much in favor of the United States that it would not be a difficult task for the Treasury to resume specie payments. The Government has practically nothing to redeem in gold but the plain greenbacks, and these are so highly valued by the people, that were they made payable in gold, they would not be presented for redemption to any great extent, but keep the field at the expense of the National Bank currency, which would soon be sent home for redemption in plain legal tenders representing gold. The Government is fast getting into a position where it can resume specie payments and the National Banks should get rid, as much of the fact, but shorten sail and get back to safer waters than they are now navigating. The rebellion is over, but the banks as a rule are as extended as when the war was undoubtedly, and resumption a thing only dimly seen in the remote future. Some of the National Banks have already gone by the board in Pennsylvania, and more are sure to follow, under the fall in gold, and the sure collapse of the numerous "enterprises" in which the dealers of "wild banks" are engaged. Even those who are not blinded by their engagements in speculations, and whose success depends upon liquidation of obligations, made upon debased paper in this kind of currency, the air is full of signs of a coming financial storm. An excess of money on call at low interest, with a superabundance of commercial paper at enormous discount, a rapid decline in farm products, gold, and commodities generally, are not signs of commercial prosperity, and should be duly needed by all in debt or seeking to be debtors."

Finance and Trade in New York.

STOCKS AND MONEY.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Money easier at 5@6 per cent. on call; loans; sterling dull and nominal, at 108¾@109¾. Gold irregular and unsettled, opening at 128¾, advancing 128¾, declining to 127¾, and closing 127¾. Governments without decided change. Five-twenties in Liverpool dull. Foreign exchange dull. There is little inquiry for bankers bills, and the rates are nominal, at 108½@109¾ for sixty days' sterling, and 53¾@53¾ for long francs. The increased demand for money experienced on Saturday afternoon, is apparent this morning. The Stock market, at the commencement, is decidedly firmer, and a marked rise on Erie, Michigan Southern and Pittsburgh. After the call Erie rose to 75½, and the market was very much excited. The contest going on at present between the bulls and bears is a severe one, and the amount of capital and talent on both sides is very large. At the closing session of open board, Mr. Parke moved that the board adjourn to-morrow till after one o'clock call, in respect to the memory of the late Jno. Ward, of the Stock Exchange. The motion was seconded and carried unanimously. The balance in the Sub-Treasury is $81,109,759.

At the afternoon session the Petroleum market was generally dull, but Ure showed a little improvement. Sales of Bennehoff at 12 45, Central, 2 45; United States, 5 00; Pacific, 5 15, Fithole, 5 25; Oil Creek, 4 90.

DRY GOODS.

The market to-day is a little stronger; goods are firm at the quotations. Foreign goods are weak for many styles, and difficult to sell by jobbers and retailers. The auction sales announced for the week are quite as large as for the past few weeks, which continues to depress the trade in imported fabrics. Brown Sheetings—Amoskeag, A, 35; Appleton, A, 34; Atlantic, A, 33; Augusta, 21; Indian Head, 33; Nashaeag, A, 31½. Bleached Shirtings—Ballou & Son, 27; Bartletts, 31; Baltics, 33½; Blackstone 36, James 30, Lonsdale 36. Prints—Allen 17½; American 16½; Arnold 16½; London mourning 16½; Lancaster 17½; Merrimac W 22, Merrimac D 21; Sprague 21; Fancy 20; Wamsutta 19½. Delaines—Armures 22½; Manville 22½; Hamilton Manufacturing Company, 30. Blue Checks—Cedar Grove 30; Haymaker 36; Whittenden 28; Workingman 30. Foreign Markets.

(Per steamer City of Paris.)

LONDON MONEY MARKET—A gloomy feeling prevailed at the Stock Exchange on the 20th, the principal cause being the warlike rumors from Germany, and distrust created by the scandalous exposure of the joint stock discount affairs. At the close, however, on receipt of more favorable accounts from Germany, there was a slight improvement, and Consols closed at 86¾@87. The demand for discount was comparatively moderate. The rate remains at six per cent.

LONDON, March 21—Morning—The cotton market on Monday was firm at full prices, but on Tuesday, under very heavy receipts, it became flat, and generally prices were ½d per pound lower. Middling uplands, 19½@20d. The sales of the two days amounted to 21,000 bales.

BREADSTUFFS—Wakefield, Nash & Co., and Richardson, Spence & Co. report Flour dull tending downward. Wheat very quiet, but quotations unchanged. Winter red 10s@10s 6d per cwt. Corn firmer and in fair demand; mixed 28s 6d per 480 lbs.

The stock of Timothy is reduced, and is now concentrated, and prices have advanced to $3,90@4,00. Flax is dull and prices are nominal. We note a sale of 7000 bags Calcutta Linseed per "Longwood," supposed at $2,36 gold—it is offered to arrive at Boston at $2,32½.

Cleveland Market.

CLEVELAND, April 2.—Wheat—Quiet and in moderate request by car loads. Sales 2 cars No. 1 Spring from store at $1,63. Corn—The demand is fair and market firm. PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE } MONDAY, April 2, 1866. }

CRUDE—The Crude market was quiet but firm to-day, and, as compared with last week, prices are a fraction higher. This may be attributed, we presume, to the foreign news being regarded as more favorable, together with the fact that some thirty thousand barrels are reported to have been destroyed by the fire on the Egbert Farm last Saturday. We can report sales of 500 bbls in bulk, (40 to 45 gravity) at 14½; 321 bbls (42 gravity) at 15; and 110 bbls (42 gravity) at 15. In addition to the above, there was a sale of 1500 bbls—on Saturday but not before reported—at 19, packages included.

REFINED—There was considerable inquiry for bonded oil to-day, both for present and future delivery, and not withstanding an advance was offered, as compared with the rates current last week, there was not a single sale effected. In the early part of the day 40 cents was offered for immediate delivery in Philadelphia; 41 for May; 42 for June; and 43 for July. In the afternoon, however, it is stated that offers were made to buy at 44 for June, and 44 for July, an advance of 2 cent per gallon. This, also, as in the case of Crude, may be attributed to the favorable advices from Europe. Free Oil is dull and entirely nominal.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of crude by the Allegheny River, during the forty-eight hours ending this evening, are as follows:

H. McKelvy.....388 John Benn.....10
Clark & Co.....50 W. P. Logan.....54

RIVER NEWS.

RIVER, WEATHER, ETC.

The river is about at a stand at this point with scant eight feet in the channel by the pier marks last evening. The weather yesterday was cloudy and unsettled, with indications of more rain.

The Pine Grove, from Cincinnati, arrived on Sunday evening with a good trip, and the Emma Graham, from Zanesville, got in during Sunday night.

The famous Phil Sheridan, from Cincinnati has also arrived, and will load out here for the Upper Mississippi.

There was not a single departure aside from the regular packets. Business was a little more active than usual at the wharf yesterday, apparently, the offerings of freight being more liberal. There is still an abundance of room for improvement, however, and we are in hopes that business will continue to improve from this out, as our steamboatmen have had but little to encourage them lately. It not unfrequently happens that a boat is compelled to wait for three, four and seven weeks for her turn to load, and it then takes about the same length of time to pick up a trip.

Passengers and shippers should bear in mind that the new and splendid side-wheeler, Minnesota, Capt. Hill, will positively leave for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi to-day.

The Emma Graham, Capt. Stull, is the regular packet for Zanesville to-day, leaving at 4 p. m.

The Leonidas left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Friday last. The Democrat gives her cargo as follows:

She has 1,500 barrels flour, 1,000 empty oil barrels, 650 dry hides, 500 pigs lead, 150 bundles hair trees, 100 bales hemp, &c., &c., and halted at Caronelet to take on 300 tons pig iron, which put her down to 6½ feet. She is also full of people, and the trip of the Leonidas is very probably the best of the season.

The steamer Kenton is loading at St. Louis for Ouachita River. The Ontario and Kate Putnam are also loading there for Pittsburgh.

The Leonora, Capt. Davis, is loading for Nashville; Financier, Capt. Darragh, for New Orleans; Kate Robinson, Capt. Robinson, for Missouri River; Citizen, Capt. Hare, for St. Louis.

The Louisville Courier of Friday last says: The towboat Hercules came in from Pittsburgh yesterday with a tow of coal for the South, and was preparing to descend the falls in the evening.

The report that the Hercules had lost half of her tow at Cairo the other day, as telegraphed to the Cincinnati papers, was erroneous. It was some other boat, and her loss was only one boat.

We learn that the towboat Sam Merwin, belonging to Olmstead & O'Connor, of this city, ran foul of a monitor at Cairo and swamped one of her barges of coal, probably two, and that may have given rise to the report that the Hercules had met with disaster.

The Sam Merwin was formerly the Storm, the machinery of the latter being used in the construction of the former.
